Well written and most thought provoking! I agree with his premise that all believers should be prepared to be in this world when antichrist makes his grand debut. If the first church, and all our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ through the years, had to be subject to persecution, what makes the end time church so special to escape? The church today has grown lukewarm and doesn't even present the fact that sin, of any kind, is an Obama nation to a Holy God. We must wake-up!

The Church is asleep; we need to get ready for coming events. Joseph Lenard, co-author of The Last Shofar!

By Joseph A. Lenard

God is doing a new thing---unsealing understanding of His prophetic scriptures. Many of us see and feel this. Nelson Walters has been obedient to the leading of the Holy Spirit and has written Are We Ready for Jesus?--a book to help awaken the Church and teach us how to get ready for Jesus' second coming. Nelson gives new insight into the end-times teaching of Jesus' Olivet Discourse and reveals unique understanding of five parables Jesus used to convey end-times messages on how the Church needs to prepare for His coming. The Holy Spirit has revealed these understandings because the time to prepare has come.

Nelson's book is highly recommended. This teaching is a game changer in many ways to help awaken pastors and parishioners alike. The message needs to resound within America's churches and in churches around the world.

As suggested, I have given my pastor a copy; he read it in one day, and he is fully "on board." I just placed an order for 25 books to give out to folks in our church. Tribulation and apostasy are coming. We need to be prepared.

By barharborboy

I feel the author forces his own meaning of "watching until His return" and takes that meaning to chastise the church. I almost stopped reading the book and was ready to throw it out, but I decided to give it a fair read. The second part of the book reveals the author's heart for the lost and his desire to see as many saved as possible; thus his forceful beginning. While I don't necessarily agree with all of his views, I really admire his heart.
