Susan is nervous. Who wouldn't be nervous the night before her wedding?

She spends her bachelorette party with her best friend at a male strip club but ends up leaving early. Within minutes, she bumps into the stripper who gyrated over her lap an hour ago. After a glass of wine, she sees her friend walking past—near enough to spot her sharing a drink with a man other than her fiancé.

In an attempt to evade being caught, Susan rushes in the direction of the stripper's hotel room. Now she must decide between getting a good night's sleep for her wedding or being tangled in the sheets with her new mystery man.

Can i have a dance?

By Love~Simple~Grace

4 1/2 stars for sure.

Loved reading this short but hot story. Even though it was short Ava writes her characters so well you seriously feel their connection in a few sentences that takes full length novels the whole book to do! I loved it. Not only was it well written it was freaking hot!

If your looking for a not overly cheesy short sexy read...this one is for you!

Is it hot in here? Susan leaves her bachelorette party at a Las Vegas strip club determined to be a good girl the night before her wedding. But the best laid plans... Pun intended. Who doesn't fantasize about a hot male stripper? This is a great hot short story.

One HOT steamy night in Vegas - loved it :)

By Sarah Greenwood

Susan is on her bachelorette party in Vegas and her maid of honour has insisted that they go to a strip club. Little does she know that in going there she will end up having the time of her life and a night she will never forget with one of the dancers she can't get out of her head.

Even with it being a short read I found that it was nicely paced. Not rushing straight into the sex that some writers do tend to do, but letting the story guide you to where you are hoping it will go. You can feel the chemistry between Susan and Mark slowly build and know right from the start that Mark is trying to seduce her – not that she is complaining much!

I like the way the tension builds between them when he shows her some of his 'dance' moves in private. You can see her resolve to leave slowly fall away until she is completely under his spell. With how his physique is described you can see why she would be. She leaves it all up to him to make to first bold move to kiss her but the second he does she comes out of herself and holds her own. Together they make a bit of a passion hungry pair and even though you don't know what they get up to in the whole time they are together you can get a pretty good idea.

I like the ending line where you know that she will keep the memory of what happened between them for a while to come. He will now defiantly take the place of the romance book cover guy in her fantasies when she needs a bit of a pick me up. Good rounded characters that you would be interested in seeing how life turns out for them.

I am a Beta reader for the author and received this ARC for my honest review.
