Oh man, oh man, oh man. It was like riding a rollercoaster!

Kassanna has done it again! The very first sentence grabbed my attention and held it. There was action galore with Simone, a white tiger shifter, and mother fighting to find her child. I meant the battles in this story was epic, and when Roar, a polar bear shifter entered the scene, the chemistry battle between them were HAWT! Plus, they worked well as a team to defeat anyone standing in their way. I must say, that I really like Deuce, a lion shifter who was a mercenary/dealer of sorts who loved to play games like an excellent chess player loves strategizing. He was suave and deadly. I would love to have him redeemed with his own story. Plus, the piece of resistance was Simone and Roar's daughter, Kimmie, a little girl who was saber tooth tiger shifter. She was smart as a whip and just as quick. I was sad that story closed the way it did. But, hey, I know that the next installment will take us on another action filled merry chase, and I will love it! Kudos Ms. Kassanna. I can't wait, literally.

Splendidly Written

By Amazon Customer

I am an avid fan of this author and have followed her work through many genres. This book in particular peeked my interest from the very first paragraph in the very first chapter. I could not put this book down until I read "The End." If you like/love paranormal genres, you will enjoy this. This is book nine in the series. Enjoy!

Loved Roar!

By Bridgette Mabry-Whorton

Roar and Simone tying the PrideRiders and Volkshire Pack together was genius! I'm loving Kimmie she's too cute and a very special kid! We need to know what happens next Kassanna, when's the next Pack Rulez book coming out? I can't wait for the next installment of the Roar and Simone saga!
