SECOND CHANCE: A LESBIAN ROMANCE BY JUDY FOLGER PDF

Christa plays the field, never letting anyone get too close. Then she meets just-out-of-the-closet Keri, and the sparks fly. As Christa's barriers come crashing down, she is sure she has found happily ever after.

Flash forward 10 years. Keri has abruptly ended their relationship, kicking Christa out of their home in Dallas. Licking her wounds, Christa has moved back to Kansas City to be near her mother. She works in an indie bookstore by day and seduces married women by night. Never, she swears, will she ever again make herself so vulnerable.

But Christa's world turns upside down when Keri also returns to KC for a job. Keri has a completely different recollection of the events leading up to their breakup, and she wants to give their relationship a second chance.

Christa isn't buying any of it. Having her heart ripped out of her chest and stomped on once was more than enough. Besides, she is slowly starting to develop feelings for Susan, one of the married women she dates.

But Christa can't deny the earthquake of desire that shakes her to her very core every time she sees Keri. She wants to kiss her, touch her, hold her, and re-explore every inch of her body.

Little does Christa realize that the white-hot passion they share isn't enough to mend their tattered relationship. That will require patience, communication, and--hardest for both of them--trust.

Good read

By Sherrie

Have you ever wished you could have a do-over to change the outcome of a good relationship gone bad? That's exactly what happens to Christa when her ex-partner, Keri, comes back to their home town to take a job. At first Christa has no intention of letting Keri break her heart again. As Christa confronts her own role in the tattered relationship, though, she starts to understand that she, too, contributed to the death of the relationship, and she starts to believe that maybe, if she can change her ways, she and Keri really will get a Second Chance.

Second Chance is another fun lesbian romance by Judy Folger. The novel introduces the feisty character of Christa (who plays a part in two subsequent Folger novels, Susan's Choice and Dangerous Reunion). Other memorable characters are Christa's mother, Esther, and Christa's bosses, Billie and Nora. And then, of course, there is Keri herself who is not afraid to stand up to Christa and give her a dose of tough love.

This book is perfect for anyone--gay or straight--who enjoys the romance genre with side helpings of both comedy and pathos. Five stars from me.

Twists, turns and an awesome storyline!

By Ms. Umpire

I loved this book! it has an awesome story, many twists and turns and its an emotional roller coaster! just when she had me laughing, the next chapter would have me near tears. the characters come to life and you feel like you really get to know them. I can't wait to read Susan's Choice to see what happens next!! Oh and there's just the right amount of "bedroom" scenes to keep the romantics happy! ;o) Judy Folger has quickly become my new favorite author!

I Was Mad Because it Ended...

By Little Lucy

In this novel, Christa gets a rare second chance - to rebuild a relationship with her lost love, Keri. Like many of us, though, she lets pride and fear stand in her way. The book is about how Christa tears down her barriers...but will she be able to transform herself before Keri gives up and walks away?

This is romance at its best, with strong characters, all the drama you could imagine, and some humor thrown in as well. I can't wait for the sequel!
