EXCERPT

These might be my last moments alive and I'm being hit on. Still, there's a strange fascination there and my breathing runs deeper, my chest rising and falling much too fast, a tingle that dances up and down my spine. He's not unattractive. He's tall, impeccably dressed with a sharp chin and high cheekbones. I can't escape that smell, that heady mix.

The elevator drops sharply again. I look to the roof, plant my feet to the floor, my legs spread. He shows no such sign of fear. He takes another step toward me and I can sense our breath mingle in that limbo. He's so damn confident... so assured.

"I'd like to know just one thing. You'll indulge me one question, yes?"

I nod.

He delivers it with shocking clarity. "Do you always go to work without underwear?"
