THE BOOK OF ANDREW: A PAST-LIFE MEMOIR BY CHARLES CALE LEHMAN PDF

Charles, a very young Southern child, tells his sister that he really should have been named “Andrew.” Decades later, an important early teacher of A Course in Miracles has a clairvoyant experience upon meeting Charles. He is startled to see a name emblazoned on Charles’s forehead.... Andrew. Charles goes to London and a famous psychic tells him, “You knew Jesus.” He has extraordinary mystical experiences and dreams, including revelations about biblical distortions and some disciples in love with each other. Haunted by the idea that he has something important to accomplish in this life, and wondering if he may indeed have lived as the Apostle Andrew, he is guided to see Bruce Gregory for a brief series of hypnotic past-life regressions. Like a journalist sent back in time, Charles sees not only that he lived as Andrew, and that he and the Apostle Philip were lovers, but that Jesus blessed their union and, in effect, joined them in marriage. Understandably shaken, Charles Lehman utters a powerfully simple prayer, “If it is to be, let it be.” Shortly after, he begins to be awakened early each morning, at the time mystics say the veil between worlds is thinnest, to receive vivid memories in a flood of images, words, and emotions. These memories constitute the main text of The Book of Andrew, an astonishing Past-Life Memoir, Witness of a Gay Apostle.

A Book That Speaks Directly to the Human Soul; a Must Read!

By RevGrandma

"The Book of Andrew brings to light a deeper knowing of the healing ministry of Jesus to a world that is trembling in pain.

This book holds within its delicate pages a power and strength and wisdom that can only come from God. When read with an open mind, its beauty and simple yet profound truths can touch and transform lives. As it proclaims with such eloquence, love in all of its manifestations is the only Source of our redemption.

Honestly, I wept when I read it. It is something that needs to be read over and over and over again. Only then can its message be inscribed upon and lived through our own hearts."

-Rev. Cynthia A. Frado, Unitarian Universalist Minister, former managing director of Deepak Chopra's Global Network for Spiritual Success

The Laughing Christ

By Shey Zen

Many years ago, I saw a beautiful painting entitled The Laughing Christ. It touched something in me that has never dimmed. This was the Jesus I wanted to know. Not a dying man agonizingly sacrificing his life for me, but a joyful man of love. The Book of Andrew introduced me to the man in the painting...full of the glory of life and the promise of the eternal. Through Andrew, the truth is told. It is a story of men and spirit, together always, loving as Jesus taught. This book brings his wisdom to unite us, as he intended. I am not a practicing Christian, but this book isn't about that. It's about uniting mind, heart and soul in love. That message transcends religion. It's personal.

A Past-Life Memoir So Timely for Our Present Lives

By dell

The Book of Andrew poetically and dramatically evokes the time of Jesus and His disciples with the beautifully written and fascinating story of Andrew. In this recounting of a devoted disciple and his love for another disciple, author Charles Lehman and editor Bruce Gregory show much courage, beyond religious and gender controversies. Andrew's personal story is artfully interwoven with Jesus's universal teachings of Love and their remarkable synchronicity with those of A Course in Miracles. In today's increasingly awakening spiritual consciousness, Lehman and Gregory, in bringing Andrew to light, give us the supreme gift of spiritual truths applicable to our own lives.
