A Must Read

By Frances M. Bradman

I was absolutely captured as I read this book. The first two chapters were so informative and inspiring. We have ordered several copies for our Women's Ministry to read and share at our meetings with our younger women who are lured by our society. The impression that outward beauty is what life is all about has our teens and young adults misguided. God looks at what no one else can see, the inner woman's beauty. A must read for all women and soon to be.

Measure of a Woman

By Debbie Z.

This book helps us women who struggle with the world's way vs. God's way. It helps you identify your value to God and how you can develop your good traits to be the wife, mother, and Godly woman that you truly are. I am a stay at home mom and I struggle with the stereo type of what women in "today's world" should be doing. This book reiterates the value of yourself and God's design for a woman, even the stay at home woman. If you're down because of pressures from friends, family, husband, or just life in general, this is a book that will lift those pressures.

The Christian Woman's Handbook

By D. S. Levinne

This is a beautifully written book that all Christian Women should read. In fact, our church used it for a ladies bible study. It teaches just how a spirit filled, Christian woman should live her life, even in today's world.
