Ever since my boyfriend and I started dating, we've been doing the study guide together. We love the discussion it presents for us--despite how uncomfortable it can be sometimes, it's awesome because it forces us to open up and be honest about some perspectives and see what God has to say on it all. It's been really edifying for us to talk to our friends about some things. We've even gotten other couples to start it and so it makes for a good transparent group to be accountable with. Very thankful for it. God has this book to really reveal a lot of His design for us.

Great study for couples

By Carlyle S. Swofford III

Great study for couples. It doesn't matter if you are a Christian, non-Christian, single, newly married, or married for 50 years, this study has great application for all. I definitely recommend the DVD also. Matt Chandler will keep you entertained while teaching life application for a healthy Godly marriage or prepping for that marriage you want in the future. If you want to know what God has intended for your marriage look no further.

It does not parse the Scripture like Tommy Nelson did in his "Song of Solomon" study but had more application. If you are looking to really dig into the details of each verse I'd highly recommend Tommy Nelson over this.

Solid

Note: You need to get the DVDs to follow along with the study guide. This book doesn't follow the actual book very well. With that said it was a good book for my husband and I to go through together it offered some good questions and I would say we enjoyed it overall.
