Then a year ago, an incident occurred where I was arrested in my own home city of Pokhara when I had gone to participate in an annual company conference. The two nights in police custody that followed was a life learning institution for me. I witnessed many things; corruption, betrayal, barbarism, sexual harassment and blatant nepotism. After I was released I was determined to write something about it, so, without hesitation, I began writing this book - Two Nights in Police Custody " - Uttam Raj Regmi
