Before there was Luka Sergeyev, there was a boy by the name of Valon Ahmeti, born to a Russian mother and an Albanian father. His life was not an easy one and he should have long succumbed to death, but prevailed, as only he could, into a life of hell and debauchery.

Beauty derived from cruelty...

Bloodlust born of agony...

Some minds can't handle torture...

It breaks them...

Amazing author writes amazing story!!

By Lin-( Nerdy Bookworm)

This is an awesome story full of sadness, action and drama which starts at the beginning of the story until the very end. The story was well written to describe or display Valon (Luka) destructive and abusive childhood as the son of a mobster boss and a whore that been said "Man did this book do a number on me." This story is so heartbreaking to me I just can not get the mistreatment of Valon out of my head. He was given Elena for a pet and after their encounter he tries to keep all the bad things that happened to him from happening to her and I love that he never wavered from that even after Fatos tried to destroy their friendship in one of his jealous rage. Fatos on the other hand....I didn't care for him for most of the book. His insane need to be the best and important no matter the cost...I really did not like that. I have always enjoyed this author writing and bought all the other novel written due to her unique style of expressing story. Her story flowed beautifully and I once again(love the last book) found myself sitting down to read this book and looking up to find hours had gone by.The writing is rich and intelligent, and the characters are well developed without being overdone. I was in a state of suspense and excitement of what would happen next and anxious to turn the page and see how it is going to all work out. Then when the ending came I thought it was well played out and very enjoyable. KUDOS to the writer.....Overall, a magnificent read and awaiting for the "Hidden Monster".

Saved this story for last

By Nicole A McClain

I finally got the courage to read Luka's past. It was a not an easy, happy read. I appreciate the man he became even after all the horrid things he went through. And Loki...you have to love a loyal pup and he saved him! Gotta love a man that protects animals!

Thank you London for writing this story! Have loved every book so far. These stories suck you in and leave you thinking about the characters long after you finish reading. I applaud writers that have the talent to execute this!

I LOVE this series!

By Amazon Customer

Luka/Valon is one of my favorite characters from the Volkov Bratva series and this novella, this look into his history, was both awesome and painful. Our lovable joker (a la Batman) had a rough start, but it makes me want to love him more. I can't wait for Hidden Monsters!!
